This place of work gave me the possibility to gain very much experience in the field of service and tourism, and in the field of food stuffs. Here I had to take care that all the bars and restaurants of this resort functioned well and according to all local and international standards. My responsibility was to assure the qualitative service of all the clients of the resort. I was very much interested in the quality of the served food and drinks and in the qualitative and professional service of the customers and helping them to explain how they can spend the time better in the holidays and retell them about the most beautiful places in Greece. I liked this job very much, because it was of great responsibility and made me a good professional in this field of activity.
