English Speaking specialist

About me

I have knowledge to speak english from the young age, not from teachers or special learning apps, all by Videos, Movies and Games.

I have reach about the same english speaking level side by side with an American or English man.

I am constantly talking english and is it my comfort language to speak with. I mostly practice with peoples online and having grammar flaws is extremely low.

I may type wrong, but i also type fast, mostly short like example Can't i sometimes type Cant. But that can be fixed easily.

Hoping for great cooperation and to speak that language more often than usual!
