About me

I am resourceful and versatile professional, with a unique blend of experience across finance, agriculture, and full-stack web development. Over the past decade, I have built a strong analytical foundation as a financial analyst, supporting cash-flow modeling, income analysis, and M&A assessments.

My hands-on background in agricultural operations has given me a deep understanding of production workflows, quality control, and export-oriented supply chains. Complementing this, I bring five years of experience developing modern, scalable web applications using React, Vue.js, Python, MongoDB, and PostgreSQL.

I excel at solving complex problems, optimizing processes, and translating technical or operational challenges into actionable solutions. Comfortable in both data-driven and practical, field-based environments, I thrive in roles that require adaptability, continuous learning, and cross-disciplinary collaboration. I aim to contribute meaningful value by combining analytical thinking with technological innovation.
