As the first quality that I would like to mention is that I am a fast learner, I understood that I have this kind of capacity after being on multiple positions in sales field, from being a simple agent, to getting to work and make high-end sales and being a manager as well.

I am dealing well with stress.

Another trait that I have and I would like to mention is responsibility.

First and foremost capability that is very important in order to be effective and it comes as well together with discipline.
